j2 Global®, Inc. Acquires UK Email Security and Management Business EPA Cloud

Acquisition expands j2 global presence in its email security business in Europe

LOS ANGELES--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- j2 Global, Inc. (NASDAQGS:JCOM), a global provider of Internet services through its business cloud and digital media divisions, today announced that it has acquired EPA Cloud™, UK-based Email Security and Management company.

With this acquisition, j2 has expanded its customer base and technical expertise in sales, support and email security infrastructure in the UK and rest of Europe. As j2 continues to expand its email operations in the region, localized technical expertise, support teams and data centers are critical to garnering customer confidence and support for the integration of acquired customer relationships and the continuing growth in the European region.

"j2's depth and breadth in its various cloud businesses provides EPA Cloud with the resources and expertise to continue its expansion in the region," said EPA Cloud Managing Director Craig MacAlpine, who will continue in his UK-based role as part of the acquisition. "We are excited about the continued growth of our customer base while increasing our technical knowledge base."

"This acquisition reflects our continued interest in the email security and management space and our commitment to growing this business globally," said j2 Global, Inc. CEO Hemi Zucker.

Terms of the acquisitions were not disclosed and the financial impact to j2 is not expected to be material.
